Reflection on the fourth Sunday of Lent Year A

The choice of David as king and the healing of the man born blind

1. Always embrace your identity, for growth starts with accepting who you are in your entirety.
2. Overcome prejudices, for personal growth involves challenging our preconceived notions and learning to see people as they are without labels and biases.
3. Value spiritual insight over physical sight, for growth requires us to seek deeper truths and insight rather than relying on surface appearance.
4. Seek spiritual truth, for true growth comes only to those who are hungry for true knowledge and those who dare to seek greater understanding.

Réflexion sur le quatrième dimanche de Carême, année A

Le choix de David comme roi et la guérison de l'aveugle de naissance

1. Acceptez toujours votre identité, car la croissance commence par l'acceptation de qui vous êtes dans votre intégralité.
2. Surmontez les préjugés, car la croissance personnelle implique de remettre en question nos idées préconçues et d'apprendre à voir les gens tels qu'ils sont, sans préjugés.
3. Privilégiez la vision spirituelle à la vision physique, car la croissance exige que nous recherchions des vérités et des connaissances plus profondes plutôt que de nous fier aux apparences.
4. Recherchez la vérité spirituelle, car la véritable croissance n'est accessible qu'à ceux qui ont soif de connaissance véritable et qui osent rechercher une meilleure compréhension.
